How to become a TCM
Accredited mediator.

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE IN WORKPLACE MEDIATION™

The National Certificate in Workplace Mediation™ is a fully interactive, instructor-led OCN accredited mediation skills programme that enables participants to learn essential skills and principles for mediation, practice skills and demonstrate competency to be a workplace mediator.

We have been running this since our formation in 2001 and trained several thousand mediators who are now using their mediation skills to resolve complex workplace issues. Organisations who have partnered with TCM to train mediators through the National Certificate in Workplace Mediation™ include: HSBC, Royal Mail, BA, TSB, Network Rail, National Express, Marks and Spencer, BT, The Metropolitan Police, The Home Office, DWP and Ofcom, plus numerous other Whitehall departments, universities, hospitals, police forces and councils. Delegates who successfully complete this course refer to themselves as TCM Accredited Mediators – thereby demonstrating the highest standards of mediation practice in the UK.

The National Certificate in Workplace Mediation™ was one of the first accredited mediation courses available in the UK. We pride ourselves on delivering a world class course to delegates. Don't just take our word for it, please click here to read the several hundred testimonials from previous delegates.

WHY ARE ORGANISATIONS INVESTING IN MEDIATION SKILLS TRAINING?

The course gives delegates an in-depth analysis of the psychology of conflict and it delivers a robust understanding of the causes and effects of workplace disputes. Delegates learn the skills and strategies they need for identifying cases where mediation is suitable and securing commitment to mediation from the parties involved. They also develop a deep understanding of the role of mediation in the modern workplace and understanding of how mediation works as part of wider management practices and HR processes. The course delivers a step-by-step mediation model and delegates spend time developing skills and strategies to mediate complex employment and workplace disputes.

YOUR ORGANISATION BENEFITS BY TRAINING INTERNAL MEDIATORS BECAUSE:

- ✓ Mediation is effective at resolving a range of issues including relationship breakdown, personality clashes, communication problems, bullying, discrimination or harassment.
- ✓ It might be a single employee with a grievance, a disagreement between an employee and a manager, or an issue between two co-workers.
- ✓ Differences between individuals at work can lead to grievances, absenteeism and ultimately loss of valuable employees. As a result, workplace disputes cost businesses tens of thousands of pounds per year.
- ✓ Mediation helps people sort out their differences – often in just one day. That’s why organisations are increasingly training their staff to mediate in workplace disputes.

TCM TRAINERS

TCM trainers are experts at creating a safe, empowering and challenging training environment.

The TCM blended learning style incorporates a range of interactive approaches before, throughout the course and post training. Participants develop their knowledge through group discussions, case studies and participation in role-plays. Peer-based evaluation and reflective learning feature heavily throughout the course and this is supported by the course facilitator’s extensive and detailed assessment of learners’ progress. Independent learning and reflection, which takes place outside course hours, will also be assessed. Participants gain expertise in mediation, negotiation, problem-solving and facilitation whilst developing the skills and competencies to work as mediators within their own organisations or as external mediation consultants. Upon completion of the National Certificate in Workplace Mediation™, participants will have developed a highly effective framework enabling them to work as a TCM Accredited Mediator.

ACCREDITATION

This course is fully accredited by the Open College Network (OCN) and is delivered by the UK's top resolution experts. The OCN undertake rigorous external verification of the course to ensure it is delivered to the highest of standards. OCN London is a national qualification awarding organisation regulated by Ofqual and the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA).
